Mrs. Judge Hilton is visiting at South Haven.

The weather is extremely hot, as most people have noticed.

Ed. Wilson's genial phiz can again be seen on our streets.

Judge Hilton held court at South Haven last Monday day.

Miss May Dyer of Hartford, is visiting Miss Maud Hawkins.

Van Aukken has bought 70,000 pounds of wool and is still buying.

Miss Ellen Thompson has returned from Indianapolis for the summer.

John T. Clapp has purchased something over 25,000 pounds of wool this season.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Harrison of Kalamazoo, are here to remain until after the fourth.

Everybody expected to take in the dance at the Opera house on the evening of the 4th.

The Disciple Church will run a lemonade and ice cream stand in J. W. Ball's building, on the 4th.

H. B. Sinclair of Chicago, has been in town looking up old friends on his way home from the East.

L. Martin has shipped over 1,000 crates of cherries from his orchard already, and the end is not yet.

Capt. Stewart of the South Haven Sentinel, was in town Tuesday.

A. W. Crandall of California, is visiting his brother at Gliddenburg.

Benefit of the Paw Paw Cornet Band at the skating rink this—Wednesday—evening.

The NORWICH office flies a fine U. S. flag with a Blaine and Logan streamer, the first one in town.

Mrs. H. S. Richards has been obliged to shorten her visit, being called home by the illness of her husband.

M. DeLafayette of Marshall, formerly of this place, made a flying visit to his many friends here yesterday.

Jones, the furniture man, has had the front of his store repainted and lettered, and it presents a very fine appearance.

Misses Shea, Harrigan, and McSweeney of Kalamazoo, were guests of Miss Maggie Bryar during commencement week.

The Odd Fellows have added very much to the appearance of their hall by putting up a very handsome gilt sign on its front.

Miss Minnie Fisk, who has been attending school at St. Mary's, South Bend, will spend the summer with her sister Mrs. J. J. Carroll.

A game of base ball at Kalamazoo, on Monday last, between the Paw Paws and the Kalamazoo, resulted in a victory for Paw Paw. Score, 12 to 8.

The Alumni reunion was held at Four Mile lake, June 25, a special train being employed to carry the party to and from the picnic grounds.

M. W. Ryan, formerly a Paw Paw boy, now sheriff of Midland county, arrived here last Friday and relieved our Wild Irishman of his horse-thief.

Miss Clara Chappell intends spending the summer with relatives in Brockport, N. Y., and will occupy part of the time in contin-ing her musical education.

The building of two additional, large reservoirs, connecting with the main reservoir by six-inch tile, has added materially to our facilities for extinguishing fires.

The "boy-wonder," who exhibited at the skating rink last week, is well named, and performed many truly remarkable feats.
Harry spares no expense to make his rink attractive.

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Van Fossen, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Blackman, and Mr. and Mrs. O.
W. Rowland, represented the Press at the recent convention at Bay City, and on the editorial excursion.

Claims have been growing scarce at Nian-tic, Conn., for several days, in anticipation of Capt. Ed Smith's annual visit. He started June 26, accompanied by his wife and Miss Kittie Kimball.

K. W. Noyes has made a good many changes in the interior of his store, making it much more convenient. He has also put up a nice new gilt sign. Read his new advertisement in this paper.

The union temperance service will be held at the Free Baptist church next Sunday evening. Rev. E. C. Wilkinson of Bangor, will deliver the address. This being the annual meeting, reports will be made by the officers.

On the 21st of last month a black mare was stolen from Newman Arnold of Bangor.
The thief, supposed to be one Harrison Leach, was captured by Dept. Sheriff Ghrist of Allegan. At this writing Sheriff Van Auken has gone to Allegan to receive the prisoner. $75 dollars reward was offered.

Over at Lawton the male children are clothed with base ball uniforms for their first suits, and given miniature bats for toys.
On the principal of natural selection and the survival of the fittest, it is thought that in the course of time they will be born in uniform and with bats in their hands.

An adjourned term of the circuit court was held here last Monday, Judge Pealor presiding. The only business transacted was the trial of the case of Charles Duncombe as administrator of the estate of Sarah Shepard vs. Henry Shepard, which resulted in a verdict of "no cause of action." Court will be in session again this—Wednesday—p. m., with Judge Mills on the bench.

Mr. A. D. Munger of Chicago, formerly of this place, spent last Sunday in town. Monday morning, according to his usual custom when visiting our city, he made us a call, renewed his subscription, and had a pleasant chat. Of course we don't know, but venture to predict that in the near future, one of Paw Paw's fair widows will remove to Chicago, and that she will be known as Mrs.
A. D. Munger.

Miss Josie Shaw, who comes from Marquette to take charge of our grammar school next year, was the guest of Prof. Russell during commencement week. Miss Shaw formerly taught with Mr. Russell, and added to this recommendation, is the fact that she held a similar position in the Marquette schools for the past nine years, which fact alone is sufficient proof of her ability as a teacher.

Under-sheriff McCabe has just pocketed the nice little sum of $75, which was offered as reward for the apprehension of a horse thief who had recently operated in Midland county. McCabe arrested the man in Antwerp on suspicion, and afterwards obtained a confession of the deed from the prisoner, who protested, with many tears, that it was his first crime. It appears that he attempted to sell the horse at Kalamazoo where he excited considerable suspicion, but succeeded in eluding their vigilant officials while they were attempting to look up his record. Not so here, score one for Hank!

Hon. E. W. Keightley addressed a republican meeting at the court house, on Tuesday evening last, under the auspices of the Young Men's Republican Club of this village. The address was a very able one and very interesting. The Judge devoted considerable time to a review of the past record of the Republican party, particularly on the question of National finance, treated his audience to a fine exposition of the tariff problem, and closed with a scathing arraignment of the Democratic party and an eloquent tribute to the Plumed Knight. He was frequently interrupted with hearty applause.
The gleo club, led by Judge Hilton, sang some fine campaign songs, which were loudly encored.

Fourth of July Notes.

Fan for everybody.
Half fare on the "narrow gauge" on the 4th.

The display of fireworks will excel any thing ever exhibited in the county.

Harry Longwell will have a dance at the Opera House on the 4th, both day and evening.

Lay aside your business, come to town and celebrate and enjoy yourselves. Be patriotic one day in the year, at least.

A beautiful 4th of July evergreen arch spans Main Street, from the summit of which the fireworks will be discharged in the evening.

The Paw Paw Fire Department with its new uniform, its fine steamer and fire apparatus, will not be the least of the 4th of July attractions here.

Preparations are all complete for the grandest 4th of July celebration ever held in Van Buren County. Let everybody come to Paw Paw and enjoy the day.

Camp-Meeting.

The Free Methodists of Lawrence and vicinity will hold their annual camp-meeting on the old ground, 6 miles south-west of Paw Paw, commencing Aug. 6th, and they invite all lovers and seekers of heart purity to camp with them. No buckstering will be allowed on or near the ground, but straw and poles will be provided free. For further information, address, ELDER J. LAWRENCE, Lawrence, Mich.

Commencement.

The commencement exercises at the Opera house on the evening of June 26th, gave universal satisfaction. They were characterized by unusually comfortable weather for the season, a very appreciative and quiet audience (although the house was densely packed), and a class who gained many compliments for themselves, and the school to which they owe so much.

The Opera house presented a very attractive appearance, the stage being draped with fleecey curtains, and arranged like a pleasant parlor, with a tasteful combination of the class colors at all available points. The illuminated motto, "Only Begun," was suspended in front, and a beautiful basket of ferns in the rear, while the most novel feature of the decorations consisted of a little rockery just in front of the stage, where a fountain played among water-lilies, the whole surrounded by many blossoming plants.

The programme opened with instrumental music and prayer, followed by a song, "Protect Us through the Coming Night," from Messrs. Koons and Free, Mrs. Paige, and Miss Blackman, who have so often and so well entertained the people of Paw Paw, as to make no other comment necessary.

Miss Clara Anderson then gave a pleasant address of welcome, and drew a picture of "Life" with its ever shifting scenes.

Singing succeeded, and the reading by Winfield Jones of a production, "What makes Man educated," from the pen of Will T. Welch who, though numbered among the class, was unable to be present. "A Retrospect" by Miss Leona Johnson, abounded in humorous allusions to the happy past, and elicited considerable laughter from the audience.

A solo, "The Pilgrim Fathers," was rendered in an effective manner by Mrs. E. M.
Russell, after which Arthur B. Clark took an imaginary "Railroad Journey in 1912," in which he journeyed across continents, and under oceans on a visiting tour to his various class-mates, and fore-shadowed the wonderful "may-be" of the years to come. Miss Alice Harwick showed great skill in her execution of a piece of instrumental music entitled "The Dying Poet," and Miss Maggie Bryar, in an essay on "Woman's Place in Society," paid a graceful tribute to the wives and mothers who devote their lives to the domestic shrine of a good home, from which radiate the true men and women of the world needs.

Wm. H. Dorgan then delivered an oration upon "The World's Benefactors" which showed much thought on the subject, and was delivered in a manner that proved he meant what he said, and that he fully realized that "God helps those who help themselves." Mr. Dorgan concluded with a quiet, earnest valedictory in which he charged his class-mates to remember that they had "Only Begun."

More instrumental music,
